

WHAT'S IN IT FOR ME?

Mark 10

- 28 Then Peter spoke up, “We have left everything to follow you!”
- 29 “Truly I tell you,” Jesus replied, “no one who has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for me and the gospel ³⁰ will fail to receive a hundred times as much in this present age: homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and fields—along with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. ³¹ But many who are first will be last, and the last first.”

- Jesus is no person’s debtor (Eerdman’s Comentary)

Can this be literal?

- ...hundred times as much in this present age: homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and fields—along with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life.

- ³¹ But many who are first will be last, and the last first.

What's in it for us?

- Romans 8:8 I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us.
- 1 Cor 2:9 However, as it is written: “What no eye has seen, what no ear has heard, and what no human mind has conceived” — the things God has prepared for those who love him— ¹⁰ these are the things God has revealed to us by his Spirit.
